

Affiliation Rule

Article 1. Definition of Terms

A) Affiliation - Affiliation means a written agreement between a university and an academic official, by which each academic official determines his / her affiliation with the Georgian American University LLC., participates in the development and knowledge sharing processes on his behalf.

Affiliate Academic Staff - A person in an academic position who has a written affiliation agreement with the University.

Affiliation Agreement - A written agreement between the University and its academic staff that sets out the parties' rights and obligations regarding employment and affiliation.

Article 2. General Provisions

1. The affiliate academic staff of the University consists of affiliate professors, affiliate associate professors, affiliate assistant professors and assistants.
2. The rights and main responsibilities of the affiliate academic staff of the University are given in detail in the affiliation agreement and in the "job description of the academic / scientific / invited staff of the University and the procedure for their evaluation".
3. The results of the scientific / research activities of the affiliate academic staff will be considered only to the Georgian American University, despite their support by other higher education institutions and / or organizations / institutions.
4. Georgian American University is authorized to terminate the affiliation agreement with affiliate academic staff in case of concluding an affiliation with another educational institution and to claim compensation for damages, if any.

5. The University promotes the scientific / research activities of affiliate academic staff.

Article 3. Affiliation of Academic Staff Selected at the University

1. Personnel who hold an academic position at the University at the time of entry into force of this Rule are entitled to enter into an affiliation agreement with the University, taking into account the will of the University.
2. Affiliate academic staff, in agreement with the University, is authorized to hold an academic position in another higher education institution and conduct training in accordance with the principle of proportionality.

Article 4. Affiliation Agreement Form

The form of the University Affiliation Agreement is approved by presidential decree.